RECEIVER NAMED

M. Meyer and Brother to Wind Up Broad Street Jeweiry Business. For the purpose of winding up affairs of M. Meyer and Brother and giving valid title to certain real estate holdings, Eli C. Meyer was yesterday appointed by Judge Grinnan, of the Chancery Court, as receiver to take over all assets and close up the business under direction of the court The appointment of a receiver by means indicates that the firm is in $65,000 of available real estate, in cluding a valuable Broad Street store 313 East Broad Street, and other property. It was reported to the court that Abraham M. Meyer, head of the firm, and an aged man, was now of un-sound mind, and by consent Preston Cocke was appointed as guardian as litem to look after his interest. Othe members of the firm beside Abrahan M. Meyer are Ell C. Meyer, Bertha C Meyer and Flora Meyer. The real es-tate will be placed on the market and the business divided as soon as prac ticable, the form of receivership be ing taken in order to authorize a valid title in the absence of a signature by the head of the firm, and to wind up the business.
